Birth Certificate Needed To Enter School First Time

It is essential that every child entering any school in Hancock County present a birth certificate before being enrolled in school, E. E. Breland, County Superintendent of Education said this week.

This is a state law passed by the last Legislature. Parents who do not have a photostatic copy of their child's birth certificate must obtain one from the Department of Vital Statistics, Jackson, Mississippi. These certificates will cost fifty cents.

"It is estimated that 50,000 new pupils will enter our state schools in the near future," Supt. Breland said. "Don't wait until the last minute to write for these certificates as this will swamp that office and cause much delay."

He explained that children who have already entered school and are in the upper grades and have presented their

$1500 Boat, Motor Stolen Saturday From Kern Yard

Thieves drove into the yard of Mrs. Joseph Kern Saturday night about 9:30, nonchalantly hitched a trailer that was in the yard to their automobile, and disappeared into the night with about $1,500 worth of boat, motor and equipment that was mounted on the trailer.

The car was seen by a number of people as it drove into the Kern's yard, and the occupants were watched by neighbors as they sauntered leisurely about the job of stealing. Their brazen attitude so early in the evening dispelled any ideas of theft from the neighbors, who simply thought friends of young Kern were preparing for a fishing trip.

Mrs. Kern and her son returned to the house shortly before ten o'clock and discovered the missing trailer with its load. It was reported to the police immediately.

The boat was a 1 foot Lyman speed hull, 1953 model, with serial number 27426 on transom. The motor was a 25 h.p. 1954 model Johnson outboard, with serial number R.P. 15-1135019. The trailer was a "Gator."

In the boat were five rods and reels, attached reel seat, three tackle boxes filled with plugs and other fishing gear, 1 pair green oars, five life preservers, a six gallon gas can, and sundry other items of personal gear.

Injured In Fall From Ladder

Mrs. George Heitzmann received emergency treatment at King's Daughters hospital this morning for injuries she sustained when she fell from a ladder at her home on Sycamore St.

She was permitted to return home following treatment.

"We have forms in the office of the County Superintendent of Education which you may obtain for making application to the state office for upper grades and have presented their

Two More Trains For Bay As City-L & N Dispute Ends Mon.

Participants in the Bay St. Louis-L & N Railroad dispute beam happily as a compromise is reached and the hearing ends.

Seated: Members of the State Public Service Commission, Ike Sanford, Collins, Southern District; Chairman Alton Massey, Kosciusko, Central District and Howard Little, Corinth, Northern District

A dramatic climax was reached last Monday afternoon in the dispute between the Louisville and Nashville Railroad and the People of Bay St. Louis when, after a flurry of proposals and counter-proposals, a compromise was reached which will result in two through trains stopping in Bay St. Louis to pick up and discharge passengers.

The final compromise to which both sides agreed was:

The stopping of Train 37, the Crescent to New Orleans at 5:05 p.m. to carry revenue passengers to New Orleans or beyond. Under some conditions this train already stops at Bay St. Louis to discharge passengers. Also halted in Bay St. Louis will be Train 5, the Humming Bird, to New Orleans at 1:42 p.m. Both trains stop only when a passenger is due to get on or off the train.

The dispute has been in progress about a year, with neither side willing to come to an agreement suitable to the opposing side.

After holding several meetings in Bay St. Louis and Jackson, the dispute finally progressed to the stage of being an official court action, with the L & N accused of failure to comply with State laws governing railroads.

The wheels of this legal action ground into operation on May 27 and lasted two days before being recessed until last Monday.

During the two-day trial before recess, R. A. Stanley, witness for the L & N, spent the entire time on the stand.

Representing the People before the Public Service Commission were Mat Harper of Jackson and Dan M. Russell Jr. of Bay St. Louis. Attorneys for the L & N were C. B. Arendall Jr. of Mobile, Ala., and C. T. Coomes of Louisville, Ky.

Young Lady Asks Questions; Gets All The Answers

Learns How To Win 1954 Ford V-8 Sedan And Big Cash Prizes

Did you ever have a bunch of questions hurled at you so fast that you hardly knew which one to answer first?

That's what happened this morning to the manager in charge of The Hancock County Eagle's big "Everybody Wins" prize subscription contest.

Some people might become a bit confused if questions were shot at them like a rapid-fire gun, but our contest editor just revels in it.

This morning, for example, there came tripping into the Hancock County Eagle office a young lady who wanted to enter the contest and compete for that beautiful new 1954 Ford V-8 with all extras, worth exactly $2,721.30, and the other rich prizes soon to be awarded under our unique "Weekly Payroll" Plan.

She wanted to find out "all about it" and if medals were ever given to question propounders, this young lady surely deserves one.

"Well, come to the point right away," she came to me in the contest and explain details.

"Yes, indeed," replied the contest editor. "You see..."

"Tell me first," she interrupted, "can I win the new 1954 Ford V-8 automobile in just 6 weeks?"

"You certainly can; providing, of course, you secure the largest number of earned points or votes now being given on both new and renewal subscriptions to this newspaper—between now and the day the contest ends—Saturday noon, August 7."

"And does it make any difference whether I live in this city or else?"

"No difference whatever. Just so you reside locally within the trade area, which includes Hancock County."

"Then tell me what I must do to win," she eagerly inquired as she moved her chair a notch forward.

"That's easy. All you have to do is get your next door neighbor, friend or acquaintance—anyone, anywhere—to take advantage of the money-saving rates now in effect and renew their subscriptions for one or more years to the Hancock County Eagle through you."

"And, if they are not now taking this established weekly newspaper, the idea of course is to induce them to become a regular subscriber at the special reduced rates in effect only during this contest."

"Really, is that all I have to do to win one of those generous prizes or otherwise share in the weekly awards feature?" she exclaimed.

"But how about the points or votes or whatever it is you call 'em; it takes points to win the big prize, doesn't it?"

YOU CAN'T LOSE

"That's right. I'm coming to that. A certain number of points or votes are issued on each and every prepaid new or renewal subscription to the Hancock County Eagle—and to contestants amassing the most points will be awarded the biggest and best prizes."

"Please bear in mind, too, that 'Everybody Wins' in this contest since the very least any participant gets is one dollar out of every five of their subscription collections—and they will receive it in the form of a weekly paycheck from this office each Monday covering the past week's collections all in accordance with the plan more fully outlined in the official opening announcement."

"It sounds mighty wonderful! Now tell me how many points I get on each subscription," she quizzed.

"That depends on which 'period' subscriptions are turned in to the contest during the first 4½ weeks ending July 17—and also very much depends upon the length of time subscription is paid. Right now the field has not been scratched and is wide open to entrants in every area."

MANY NEW RESIDENTS

"And," continued the contest editor, "with the tremendous influx of new residents in this area during the last few years, there are literally hundreds of non-subscribers living within a few miles of this office who would be only too glad to have the Hancock County Eagle delivered to their home regularly each week if properly approached on the subject and informed about the exceptionally attractive subscription rates now in effect, which no prudent person can afford to pass up."

The young lady tapped the toe of her shoe on the floor, pursed her lips thoughtfully for a moment, then popped the question that many other people—who also are seriously considering taking part in this strictly local prize contest—would like very much to know, to-wit: "How many have already entered the contest?"

"I'm glad you asked me that question," replied the contest editor, "for contrary to popular opinion—when a prize contest of this magnitude is announced—most people jumped to the erroneous conclusion that no less than several scores will participate."

"Instead, however, this very fact seems to deter many otherwise eligible people from becoming immediately active and getting their share of the good things offered. Actually less than two dozen local people have enrolled and the gates of opportunity contest department—many more points are now wide open for at least that many more."

HOW MANY PRIZES?

By this time another man and woman who wanted to know more about the contest had gathered around and were listening. The young lady drew a deep breath and resumed.

"How many prizes will be awarded?" she asked.

"There are two major prizes and four big cash bonus awards for third, fourth, fifth and sixth place winners—making six substantial awards in all."

"Besides that, of course, are liberal weekly paychecks for any and all who turn in one or more subscriptions regularly; and, by improving that performance, have an equal opportunity with others to win one of the biggest prizes."

"I'd call that a mighty good deal," she said as her face lighted up, "for in that way I just can't lose. Is that right?"

"Right you are, young lady."

The two eyed each other for a moment. Then she smilingly said: "Guess you think I'm asking a lot of questions, but I want to understand everything."

"That's right; go ahead."

"Fair enough," she said. "Now, tell me what I should have in the way of material to get started."

"All you need, young lady, is one of these little contest receipt books and the desire to ride away in your own new 1954 Ford V-8 automobile, worth $2,721.30 on August 7."

He is enjoying a 30-day leave before departing for his place of embarkation, San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. M. J. Ruppel has returned

"A Community Plan With World Wide Protection"

MISSISSIPPI MOTORISTS TO RECEIVE NEW SAFETY PAMPHLET

The Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol today announced plans for the distribution of a new highway safety pamphlet entitled "Has the Dream Become a Nightmare?"

Colonel T. B. Birdsong said the new pamphlet has been produced in cooperation with the Mississippi Petroleum Industries Committee and will be given to motorists of the state by the Driver License Examiners, individual patrolmen and at meetings where members of the patrol are invited to participate in behalf of public safety.

Pointing out that individual driver failures are the cause of a good 80 per cent of all highway accidents, the pamphlet underscores the point that "safe drivers make safe highways." Col. Birdsong said:

He added that this is important because "one of the gravest threats to highway safety today is the driver who is lulled into reckless speed by the feeling that he is protected against accidents by the safety features 'engineered' into the car he is driving and the road he is traveling."

Noting that traffic fatalities on Mississippi highways have been averaging about 455 a year, and that the nation's death toll in highway accidents in a mere 50 years of automotive history has surpassed the number of American lives lost in all wars in which this country has been engaged, Colonel

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

BY HOWARD F. SIMMONS
Hancock County Agent

Don't let insects harvest your garden vegetables for you. They can be controlled.

Most chewing insects can be controlled with methoxychlor or cryolite. Rotenone, the safest material to use, will control Mexican bean beetles, bean leaf beetles, flea beetles, 12 spotted cucumber beetles, pickle worms, cabbage worms and plant lice.

For best control of blister beetles, harlequin cabbage bugs and squash bugs use sabadilla. Insecticides are available for just about all of the harmful garden pests. See your local county agent for specific instructions on poisons to use and how to apply them. Get a free copy of Extension Publication 284 "Control Garden Bugs".

COTTON

Keep that cotton clean and growing. Cultivate often enough to control weeds and grass, but make your cultivations shallow to avoid cutting roots.

Make your cotton program a complete one. Control insects, pick the cotton clean and keep it clean, pick dry and keep it dry and market for grade, staple and variety value.

When cotton begins squaring it is time to begin poisoning for control of early boll weevils. It usually takes three or four applications at intervals of around seven days apart.

As soon as blooms appear begin making square infestation count. Begin midseason boll weevil control when 10 to 15 per cent of squares are punctured. Carry out your insect control program all through the season until all bolls are safe.

It is getting close to last call for planting summer and early fall temporary grazing crops. Sudan, millet and in south Mississippi Alyce Clover, can be planted up until around the middle of June.

Save all the hay available. Cut it before it gets over-mature and put it up with all the green color possible.

Watch out for flies. They can eat up a large portion of your dairy profits. Getting rid of flies now will help prevent hundreds of thousands of flies later. Some of the newer insecticides are giving good results in killing adult flies, maggots and other harmful insects. Check with your local county agent for information on how to use these newer insecticides.

Take care of your calf crop. Remember they are the herd of tomorrow. Regular feeding, keeping young calves in individual pens, kept clean with dry bedding, feeding plenty of milk from nipples bottles or nipples pails, feeding small handfuls of bright, fine hay several times daily and keeping flies and other insects under control will all go a long way in helping you grow better replacement heifers.

Replacement heifer calves should not be allowed to graze until they are four to eight months old.

FARM AND HOME WEEK
Plans are shaping up to make the 1954 Farm and Home Week activity at Mississippi State College the best ever. Dates are July 14-15.

July 14 will feature the formal inauguration of Bill Hiltun as president of Mississippi State College. Formalities will include a colorful academic "cap and gown" ceremony, not often seen.

July 15 has been designated as "youth day." However, it is for adults too.

Other activities include a huge talent show, open house at all college departments, exhibits, tours, entertainment, meetings and a lot of fun for all.

FARM FAMILIES NEAR WINONA REALIZING
BENEFITS FROM MILK

More than 600 farm families in the Winona vicinity received checks in 1953 from the Pet Milk receiving station at Winona, according to officials of the company. The company reported paying out $360,590 for milk provided by these families. The average farm herd from which milk was obtained was five cows, but they ranged in size from one to thirty or more.

Milk production taken by the receiving station was 50 per cent greater than for 1952.

Birdsong declared:

"A study of these highway accidents reveals that excessive speed is still the No. 1 Killer on our roads, and the paradox of the situation is that as our highways are improved and modernized, speed becomes more and more a factor."

The pamphlet emphasizes the human element of traffic hazards and contains a number of revealing quotations from traffic engineers, public officials, jurists and casualty insurance companies, all tending to discount the dangerous and all too common attitude that the modern highway is foolproof."

USED FOR BREEDING

Greenhouse cotton plants which will soon be 6 years old are only one example of the nearly 700 interesting, useful projects carried on by the State College Experiment Station and its 10 branch stations.

Located in one of the State College greenhouses are wild and semi-wild cotton plants from Africa, Australia and South America. These wild and semi-wild plants grown by the experiment station are used for cross-breeding with commercial and other wild breeds. In that way, new varieties can be developed.

Demonstration Meeting Held

Mrs. du Trel was hostess to the Hancock County Home Demonstration Club meeting on June 17. Mrs. M. Villere was co-hostess.

Mrs. Gerald Tucker presided at the meeting which was opened with a devotional prayer by the group.

Mrs. Tucker informed members that the club would pay transportation for any member desiring to attend the council meeting that will be held at State College. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Sarah Weaver prior to July 1.

A donation of $10 was made to the council fund. It was voted to send Mrs. Gerald Tucker to Mississippi State College as a Delegate for Farm and Home Week.

Mrs. Weaver chose for her demonstration personal grooming, facial make-up and flattering necklines, using members of the club as models.

A piano recital by Mrs. du Trel followed the meeting. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Franz Wood won a ceramic planter that was given as an entrance prize.

Little Allison Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holmes, is spending some time visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. S. M. Mayer at her home on St. Charles St.

SOCIAL SECURITY

The social security amendment that recently passed the House was a good example of the mixture of the controversial with the non-controversial that so often happens. Too, the bill came up under a closed rule which meant that the members of the House had only the choice of taking the whole bill as written or leaving it.

In the Rules Committee the Democrats made an effort to secure a rule that would at least have made it possible to have a vote on whether any provision was to be kept in the bill or dropped, but since that policy-making committee is deliberately stacked to give the party in power an eight to four majority, the move was lost.

We made a further effort on the floor to secure a more open rule so as to give members an opportunity to pass on such controversial provisions of the bill as the inclusion on a compulsory basis, of farmers who net $400 a year, farm-workers receiving $200 cash wages during a year from one employer, preachers and such self-employed professional people as dentists, lawyers, architects, engineers, accountants, funeral directors, osteopaths, chiropractors, veterinarians, optometrists, etc. Doctors had originally been included, but after a flood of protests the committee surrendered to this pressure and dropped them from the bill. But it kept all the other provisions for them to have a choice as professional people in the bill with no social security system or not.

On the other hand, the bill had a number of non-controversial and very generally approved benefits. It increased the amount of old age and survivors benefits by $5 a month and up. Workers now retired would draw a minimum of $30 per month and a maximum of $98.50 and those retiring in the future would get up to $108.50.

Further, it liberalized the income limitation for drawing social security benefits. The new limitation would be 1,000 per annum, with 1 month's benefits withheld for each $80 in excess of that amount. No benefit would be suspended, however, in any month in which the individual did not earn $80. This would permit intermittent full-time work or more regular part-time work.

INCREASED FEDERAL GRANTS FOR OLD AGE ASSISTANCE

One provision that we personally were particularly gratified to see included was the continuation for two more years of the formula adopted in the 1952 amendments to the Social Security Act with respect to Federal payments to the States for old age assistance. This formula was scheduled to expire on September 30, 1954. Under it the Federal Government puts up much more than an equal share average monthly payment per recipient plus one-half of the remainder, with individual maximums of $55. In other words, the Federal government puts up much more than an equal share in the poorer states like Mississippi

GROUP SEWING FOR VETERANS HOSPITAL

Under the auspices of the South Mississippi Volunteer Services Council of the American Red Cross, a sewing group has been organized to do simple sewing for patients at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Gulfport. At present they are making bibs for geriatrics patients, which were requested by the medical staff of the hospital. One hundred of these are needed every three months.

To help get the project underway, local department stores and several individuals generously donated enough material, binding and thread needed to make 50 to 60 bibs. Additional contributions of these materials will be welcomed. Any kind of bright colored washable cottons (except sheers) in at least 1/2 yard lengths of 36 inch material will be acceptable, as well as binding and thread.

Forming the initial sewing group were Mrs. Caroline Woodcock, Mrs. A. J. Chapman, Mrs. E. M. Preis, Mrs. Ben Argus, Mrs. Mathilda Johnson and Mrs. Paula Jenks. Assisting in collecting materials were Mrs. Paul White, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. W. L. Argus, Mrs. A. J. Chapman Jr. Mrs. James O'Neal and Mrs. Bruce Sharp.

The group plans to meet on the second Tuesday of each month, when finished articles will be turned in and new materials will be picked up. Meetings will be held for the present at the home of Mrs. W. L. Argus on S. Beach. No sewing will be done at the meetings, but will be done by the women at home.

Those presently participating in the sewing project are very enthusiastic and hope to find many others to join with them in rendering a valuable service to hospitalized veterans. Anyone desiring further information about joining the group are cordially invited to contact any of the women named or to call the Red Cross office.

and has thereby recognized a principle that we have fought for from the time that the social security act was first proposed, which is that old age pensions are basically a Federal responsibility and that our old people should not be penalized because they happen to live in one of the poorer states

SENATOR EASTLAND OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR REELECTION ON JUNE 26

FOREST--Senator Jim Eastland formally opens his campaign for reelection Saturday, June 26, with a statewide rally at the Community House in Forest.

It was in Forest, where he formerly practiced law, that he opened his successful campaign for senatorship in 1942.

Senator Eastland is scheduled to speak at 11:30 a.m. and his address will be broadcast over a statewide radio hookup.

A sound film of portions of his address will be made for presentation later on TV stations. The film will be seen over WLBT Saturday night and over WJTV Sunday.

The senator will be presented by Judge Percy M. Lee, associate justice of the State Supreme Court, and longtime friend of the Eastland family. Jack Stuart, Morton business man and farmer, will be master of ceremonies. At the conclusion of the address, box lunches including fried chicken and trimmings will be served to the crowd.

Chairman of Morton, who said communications from all over the state indicate "every county will be represented."

Rogers said all five Scott County colonels on the staff of Governor White have accepted invitations to sit on the speakers platform.

The colonels are Mr. Rogers, A. B. Farris and M. L. Stewart, all of Morton; H. H. Warren and Marx Huff, of Forest.

Special musical entertainment will be offered before and after the address. Arthur Sullivan, state campaign manager, said Senator Eastland will discuss highlights of his legislation he has sponsored or fought for which "has been beneficial to farmers, veterans, needy aged, dairymen, cattlemen, and all Mississippians."

Particular emphasis, he said, will be placed on the Eastland-Aiken amendment to the Water Facilities Act which, if approved, will provide government assistance to Mississippi farmers for purchase of irrigation facilities. The amendment already has passed the Senate and has the endorsement of the President. The program has

'The Long Wait' At Drive-In Sun, Mon.

A Mickey Spillane story, with its blondes, blood and beatings, has once again been excitingly transcribed to the screen in "The Long Wait," which plays at the Hi-Way Drive-In Theatre Sunday and Monday, June 27-28.

Starring Anthony Quinn, Charles Coburn, Gene Evans and Peggie Castle, along with a liberal quota of luscious females headed by Mary Ellen Key, Shawn Smith and Dolores Donlon, the Spillane story tells of the valiant effort of an amnesia victim to clear himself of a framed murder rap. The first Spillane mystery novel, "I, the Jury," made its screen bow last season.

Anthony Quinn is husky, handsome and hard-boiled as he goes about trying to prove who he is and what he didn't do, namely bank robbery and murder.

In the course of his search he comes across many luscious and willing babes, which doesn't exactly disconcert him. In fact, it fits in with his plans ideally, for he is looking for an ex-girl friend whom he thinks can clear him of the rap and the one way that he can identify her is by the way she kisses. But his search is not all love and kisses. On the other side of the ledger, he tangles with one of the roughest, meanest, unscrupulous gang of crooks and gamblers to have ever been created by murder master Spillane. And Quinn & Co. (including his bevy of Lovehaves) get their share of gruelling gang-busting.

As an exercise in mass carnage and bloodletting, "The Long Wait" outstrips even the previous "I, the Jury." The Spillane fans certainly won't be disappointed with this one, and those who haven't yet been exposed to his sensational style are in for a new experience in mystery thrillers.

ANOTHER FULL GAME SCHEDULE SLATED FOR COUNTY TEAMS

Again there is a full schedule of games for teams in the Hancock County Baseball Association this week.

The only home game will see the Pass Christian Sea Scouts returning a game with the Bay Seniors at the local ball park.

The two teams have met twice with the Bay having a 2-1 edge.

Christopher Bell (2-2) will hurl for the hosts with Larry Matney catching. J. Necaise (1-2) will toss for the visitors.

Kilm will go through a four game schedule this week. Saturday they journey to Poplarville to meet the Poplarville team at 9:30 and later that afternoon they meet the Pine Hill Seminary at the Seminary field.

Sunday Kilm will take their long est road trip as they travel to Philadelphia to meet the Philadelphia Indians.

A game also is being arranged with the Biloxi American Legion during the early part of the week.

Of the six teams fielded for last week only one team, the Biloxi American Legion, was able to play.

Billy Scarborough and Christopher Bell will lead the Bay Seniors in their game with the Pass Christian Sea Scouts.

Friday's game at Kilm between the Kilm Youth Center and the Biloxi American Legion was rained out, as was Saturday's game between the Bay Seniors and Bay Juniors and NORD teams in Metairie.

The New Orleans teams played their first game with the Bay Seniors last night.

Monday's game at Kilm between the Kilm Youth Center and the Biloxi American Legion was cancelled.

Biloxi wanted to play the Bay St. Louis team a few days later that week but needed the Seniors, rescheduled the game for this Monday.

The American Legion will then return two games later this month.

LESS SEEDLINGS TO BE ALLOWED LANDOWNERS

Private landowners will receive 2000 instead of 5000 free seedlings from now on, the state forestry commission said.

State Forester Jim Craig said the reduction resulted from lower operating funds and a shortage of tree seed and less seedling production.

SPORTSMEN LEAGUE TO HOLD DINNER TUESDAY, JUNE 29

J. Creekmore, Director of the Mississippi Game and Fish Commission, will be guest of honor at a dinner with the Hancock County Sportsmen League as hosts.

The dinner will be held Tuesday June 29, at 7:30 p.m. at Ray's Drive Inn.

Jack Laddner, president of the League, said that Creekmore will address the gathering. Following the dinner the annual meeting for election of officers will be held.

SENIORS TROUNCE PASS 10-3 IN NITE TILT LAST THURS.

The Bay Seniors evened their record 5-5 last Thursday night as they defeated the Pass Christian Sea Scouts 10-3 in an abbreviated tilt played at the Pass ball park.

Billy Scarborough and Christopher Bell pitched two-hit ball in the five inning tilt which was called on a time limit.

The Sea Scouts scored two unearned runs in the first inning off Scarborough but fell victim to a two-out rally by the Seniors in the second when they pushed across five runs.

Christopher Bell entered the mound for the Seniors in the second because of Scarborough being the only able catcher on the Senior team at the time. Bell was in trouble at the start as he soon found the bases loaded but worked out of the jam.

In the following three innings the Seniors scored one in the fourth on Palmason's hit to center with James on second.

The Sea Scouts tried for one last rally in their final innings as the first two batters walked off but James hit a liner to the box which was relayed to second for a double play, and moments later the other runner was picked off base to end the game.

J. C. Necaise started on the mound for the pass nine and was relieved in the fourth by Charles Logan. Logan was the pitcher that had handcuffed the Seniors last year but the Bay team treated him just like Necaise and key on scoring.

Necaise and Logan allowed four hits in the short game at Scarborough and Bell gave up only two.

Leading the game's hitting was Bay St. Louis first baseman Bobby Laddner. Laddner hit safely twice in the contest which saw only six hits. The other two bay hits were doubles by Artiques and Monti.

This was the first night game for the Seniors, who proved they could batter the ball under any light.

They now have a 2-1 edge in their series with the Sea Scouts as the Seniors have a 1-2 record. So far all their games have been with the Bay team.

Both teams committed four errors apiece. Many walks accounted for runs with timely hits. The four pitchers allowed 18 walks and struck out 19 batters in the 5 inning game.

LWV ISSUES REMINDER TO WAVELAND VOTERS

The League of Women Voters of Bay St. Louis this week reminded qualified registered voters of Waveland of the municipal election which will be held on Saturday, June 26 from 8 a.m. till 5 p.m. at the Waveland Town Hall.

Although the election is for the Waveland town only, it should be of interest to everybody in the county and especially to residents of Bay St. Louis, since the two towns are so closely connected in every respect, the League said. The LWV pointed out that what affects one must necessarily affect the other, and honest cooperation between the officials of the sister cities will do much to give them double strength in their efforts toward growth and importance.

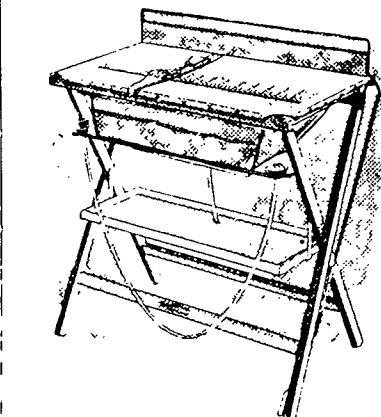

The League offers free transportation to anyone unable otherwise to get to the polls.

Mrs. Richard Madden, her two children and her mother, Mrs. Carrie Nolan, were visitors in Bay St. Louis Sunday.

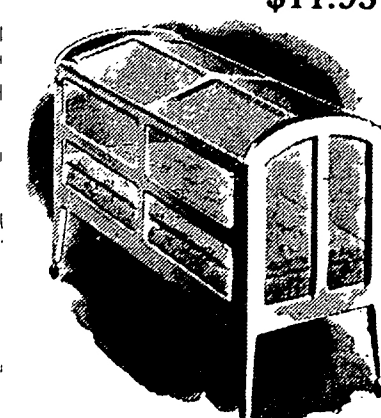

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Billups and daughter, Betty, have been recent visitors of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gex, Jr.

To The Voters of Waveland

On Saturday, June 26, 1954 an election for Mayor and other Town Officials will be held at the Town Hall. The polls open at 8:00 a.m. and close at 6 p.m.

I sincerely request that every qualified voter go to the Town Hall and vote for the candidates of their choice. I believe that the people of Waveland are well informed as to the many improvements in our town during my administration and the projects now in process, such as the new water and natural gas system on which work orders have been issued and work will begin in a few days. We have earned a reputation as the most popular and progressive little town on the Gulf Coast. Let's keep that reputation by re-electing the administration that built it.

I sincerely solicit your vote for me and my whole ticket. Give me a team that will work harmoniously for the next four years and you will see our town progress.

So be sure to exercise your right and privilege by going to the Town Hall and voting for the candidates of your choice.

If for some reason you anticipate any difficulty in going to vote please contact me at home or the Town Hall and I will assist you in overcoming that difficulty.

Hoping to see you at the polls,

Respectfully

Garfield Ladner
Candidate For Mayor
